A Subcommittee to discuss this very important consultation document on coastal management will be held on Monday, 21st. August 2006 at The Crow's Nest, Marine Parade, Instow, Bideford, North Devon. EX39 4JN at 7.00 p.m. All members with an interest in this consultation are invited, so please let me know if you wish to take part in this subcommittee.

You will find the ICZM Consultation Document on the Defra website:

<http://www.defra.gov.uk/corporate/consult/iczm-strategy/> or copies can be obtained from:

Marine and Coastal Policy,

London. SW1A 2HH.
e-mail: ICZM@defra.gsi.gov.uk
Telephone: 0207 270 8630

You will be relieved to know that this consultation document only extends to just over forty pages, in sharp contrast to the 312 pages of the recent Marine Bill.

For your information, a copy of either the full document or the executive summary of a report on ICZM, prepared by Halcrow for the Environment Agency, English Nature and the Countryside Council for Wales, are available upon request.

If you will be attending the subcommittee, parking in the drive is very limited, as access must be left for our neighbours. However, parking restrictions along Instow Seafront finish at 6.00 p.m., and there is a public car park opposite to the Marine Court flats, behind Instow Quay.

The deadline for comments on this consultation is:

Friday, 8th. September 2006
